

Catholic Arkansas Sharing Appeal

What your Donation Can Do:

- Fund the salaries of diocesan employees, including in our Catholic Schools Office, which serves 26 schools throughout the state;
- Catholic charities with immigration offices in Little Rock and Springdale (They spearheaded the One Church initiative to help the parish in Warren last year and now Hamburg);
- Prison ministry in 19 prisons;
- Youth and young adult ministry;
- The Arkansas Catholic newspaper, which is now available free of charge in electronic form, while still producing a print version available by subscription;
- Campus ministry at 10 universities throughout the state;
- Our tribunal, which handled almost 300 marriage cases last year at no charge;
- Our Office of Faith Formation, which offers formation for catechists throughout the state and formation for 57 men scheduled to be ordained permanent deacons in 2022 — 22 of which are from northwest Arkansas;
- The Family Life Office, which offers marriage preparation programs in Little Rock and in northwest Arkansas, plus Natural Family Planning training and marriage encounters;
- Our Office of Hispanic Ministry, which recently has arranged for Spanish-speaking sisters to serve in Batesville and Newport;
- Our offices of ministry to deacons, to religious and to priests — assisting with the ongoing formation of our priests and religious, including our newly ordained priests and first-time pastors, as well as our missionary priests from outside the United States;
- Our Respect Life Office, which advocates vigorously for the protection of life from the moment of conception to natural death — they sponsor our annual Mass for Life, promote the March for Life each year and offer Project Rachel to bring healing to those who have been affected by abortion;
- The St. John Catholic Center, which hosts retreats and other activities almost every weekend at Fletcher Hall, and oversees St. John Manor, our retirement home for diocesan priests;
- Our Office of Vocations and Seminarians, which promotes vocations, assists with discernment and pays the bills of the men in formation to serve as priests in Arkansas.
